

What is claimed is:

1. A woven band having a cold light effect comprising a woven band body which is woven through a plurality of warp yarns and weft yarns, the warp yarns including a least one
5 cold light fiber which is laid on the front and the rear surface of the woven band body to allow the woven band body to illuminate colored light at night to provide ornamental and alarming functions.
2. The woven band having a cold light effect of claim 1,
10 wherein cold light fiber is wound on a weft yarn shuttle and woven transversely in the woven band body at a selected interval.